St. Joseph University in Tanzania (SJUIT) is a fully accredited Catholic university with three active colleges, including the St. Joseph College of Health and Allied Sciences (SJCHAS) at Boko-Dovya. Established in 2014, SJCHAS offers a Doctor of Medicine (MD) program with modern facilities and expert faculty. The first MD students were admitted in 2015, with clinical training provided through MoUs with Muhimbili National Hospital, Mwananyamala, and Temeke referral hospitals. SJUIT was accredited by the Tanzania Commission for Universities (TCU) in 2011 and received full accreditation in 2022. The university is managed by the Registered Trustees of Daughters of Mary Immaculate and Collaborators (DMI). SJCHAS was established in response to the Tanzanian government's request to expand medical education. The institution continues to invest in expanding its teaching and research infrastructure. It provides a diverse learning environment with a mix of local and international faculty. With a mission to produce skilled healthcare professionals, SJUIT remains a center for academic excellence.
